The Palace,
Mysore, 7th September 1912.

My dear Sir,

I am instructed by His Highness the Maharaja to request you to kindly address the Residency on the subject of my employment as His Highness' Private Secretary. Under the existing conditions my term of service as a lent officer expires on March 31st 1913, on which date I must revert to British Service as the Madras Government have definitely and finally refused to extend the loan of my services any further. It is His Highness the Maharaja's wish that I should remain here as his Private Secretary and this I am willing to do, by retiring on pension from the Indian Civil Service on March 31st 1913. The employment of retired officers of the Indian Civil Service in Native States requires the sanction of the Resident and I am to ask that the necessary sanction may be applied for in my case for my employment as His Highness' Private Secretary for a period of five years from the date of my retirement from the Indian Civil Service.

His Highness has decided on the following terms in my case and I am directed to intimate the same for your information and for official record.

(1) My engagement is to be guaranteed for a term of five years.

(2) Salary. My present salary is Rs.2800/- a month rising by yearly increments of Rs.100/- to Rs.3000/-. This is to remain unaltered, that is to say, I shall draw Rs.2900/- from 1st April next and Rs.3000/- from 1st April 1914. I shall also continue to draw Exchange Compensation Allowance on my salary under the Civil Service Regulations of British India. The above-mentioned salary shall be in addition to the pension which I shall draw from the British Government.

(3) Easements.

(1) Free furnished house at Mysore, Bangalore and Ootacamund. The term "Free" to include water for the houses at gardens attached to them.

(2) During the first year only i.e.,until I rise to the maximum salary of Rs.3000/- per mensem, I shall be provided with a free conveyance when on duty with His Highness at any place except Mysore, Bangalore, and Ootacamund. My present easement of the free use of a carriage and pair of horses shall cease with effect from 1st April 1913.

(4) Travelling Allowances.

I shall be allowed the same rate of Travelling Allowance under the Mysore Civil Service Regulations Art.547 as those at present drawn by the two Councillors of the Mysore Government:

(1) Halting Allowance - Rs.10/- per diem

(2) Mileage - Annas eight a mile and

(3) For Railway journeys-

(a) A compartment of a First Class carriage for myself

(b) Four third class fares for personal servants; and

(c) freight for personal luggage not exceeding ten maunds.

(5) Leave Rules.

I shall continue to enjoy the benefit of the Rules in the Civil Service Regulations of British India as if I were still an active member of the Indian Civil Service in regard to leave and leave allowances. My past service as a member of the Indian Civil Service shall be taken into consideration in calculating the leave due to me and the Mysore Civil Service Regulations shall not apply to my case. My leave allowances shall be calculated without taking into consideration the pension which I shall draw from the British Government.

(6) Rank and Status.

I shall take official rank and precedence above the two Councillors of the Mysore Government i.e.,below only the Dewan and the Chief Judge.

PRIVATE SECRETARY MYSORE

(4)

I am to request that the necessary application may be made to the Residency without delay and the result communicated to His Highness and that the draft of the letter to the Residency may be submitted for His Highness' approval.

Yours sincerely,

R. Lamb
